Landon Michael Smith

This memorial website was created to remember our angel Landon Michael Smith who was born at Good Samaritan Hospital. on May 22, 2007.

From the day we found out we was going to have a baby our hearts were filled with love, happiness, and joy that We was going have a family. As the days grew closer to finding out the sex of Landon we grew more and more excited. The day we woke up to go to the ultra sound Landon was moving. For the first time his mommy got to feel him kick. As we walked in the hospital to meet grandma and grandpa Lewis we noticed that the grandma's had pink shirts on and grandpa and Daddy had on blue. Daddy and I Knew It was A Boy. We just had a feeling. When we all went into the room we was so excited Grandpa and Daddy and Grandma Smith was going to get to see you in action.

But our dream of having a family was shattered as the nurse looked at us and said there was no heartbeat.

We was told that he had passed within 24 hours. He kicked that morning to say Hi and I guess he knew I would never feel him again. The doctor told us he had Gastroschisis. For Those who don't know what that is it were the intestines are on the outside of the body. His stomach sealed before his intestines made it inside. It wasn't genetic. So I keep reminding myself that he just wanted to be a angel and watch over me.

Landon was 5 ounces and 7 inches long. Normal size for as far as I was (18 weeks). Even though he wasn't fully developed. He had features that i couldn't believe. He had his daddies jaw line. The long fingers like his grandpa Lewis. And the cutest little nose and feet i have ever seen.

I Made this memorial site for Landon. So i will always know he is watching over me. Mommy and Daddy love you. Landon you have so many uncles and aunts they will never forget you.

You will always live in OUR hearts!

The background is a textured, mottled olive-green or taupe color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. One is a smaller, tighter bud, and the other is a larger, more open flower showing its petals. The roses are rendered in a soft, painterly style, blending into the background.

Laura

Landon,

I wrote you a note to be put in your caskey but they had already sealed it so we didn't get to put it in there. Well It basically said how I wasn't expeting to be there when you were born, and since I was it was a way for You and God to let me know that I was meant to be there. It scared me because your mommy said something felt weird and not even a minute later, you were here. We all cried when the nurse picked you up.. and we just sat there comforting your mommy. I loved being able to see your little toes, hands, you had your daddys face... You were soo tiny but yet so precious. We will always love you and we will always miss you. You are forever in my heart.

Love you little man..

Your Aunt Laura Wrote these to Us From You!

Daddy Wipe Those Tears

Daddy Daddy wipe those tears
I'm all better, I have no fears.
Jesus took my hand today and said Landon I will lead the way.
This is where the Angels play this where all my babies stay.
We watch down on our loved ones

we show them the way we show them how to go day by day.

Our loved ones look to us and pray we respond and say "okay".
Daddy I know why I am here
Jesus told me why
He said that this day was my day to fly.
Like I tell mommy
and I'll tell you the same
I am loved and it will never change.
We will be together
but no time soon
until that day I will always be with you I love you Daddy
yes I do
Please hold Mommy to get her through I'm with Angels everyday but you already knew this was the way
Keep me close for I have no fear
The love you have has set it clear.
I love you daddy
yes I do
I'll see you daddy
but No time soon.

Mommy Mommy Please Don't Cry

Mommy Mommy please don't cry
Here's all the reasons and I'll tell you why I'm the rain that falls from the sky
I'm the wind the blows through your hair

I'm the tears that you feel are near.
I'm the laughter that keeps you going
I'm the shadow that's on the ground
I'm the angel that you know is around.
I'll be here forever and ever
You can feel me throughout the day and you know in your heart what I will say I love you mommy
and my daddy too
our bond we have is never ending
I'll see you no time soon
We will be reunited
this is true
Until then Mommy
Remember that I LOVE YOU.
